

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Movements of Many People, Newcomers and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hunter spent Friday in Greenville.

Mr. Jim Davis of Laurens county was in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Moon spent the week-end in Columbia.

Col. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt have returned from New York.

Mr. H. L. Parr returned last week from a business trip to New York.

Mr. Eugene Norris paid a Sunday afternoon visit to Irmo.

Mr. W. H. Wallace is spending several days in Spartanburg with his son, Dr. D. D. Wallace, and family.

Mrs. T. P. Johnson has just returned from a week's visit to her former home in Waxhaw, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chappell spent from Thursday to Sunday with relatives in Ware Shoals and Abbeville.

Miss Louise Perry spent Sunday in Greenwood with her sister, Mrs. S. B. King, Mr. King and the little King.

Hugh Slice of Orangeburg spent the week-end with friends in Newberry. He likes to come here.

Mr. Walter Scott of West Virginia is spending a while here with his niece, Mrs. T. P. Wicker.

Mr. Eb Blease of Charlotte is spending a few days in his former home city of Newberry.

Mrs. James M. Kibler of Newberry is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank W. Chapman, in Shandon.—The State, 16th.

Mrs. L. G. Eskridge and little daughter, Clara, and Mrs. R. H. Wright left on Monday for Dallas, Texas, to visit Mrs. A. D. Hudson.

Mrs. Trabert of Berkeley, Cal., is expected to arrive in Newberry this week to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. O. Wells.

Congressman Dominick has returned to Newberry after attending the recent cotton convention in Washington.

Misses Virginia Steele and Louise Grady of Statesville, N. C., spent the week-end with Mrs. Douglas Hornsby, their former college mate.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. O. Taylor and little daughter of Columbia spent the week-end with mother, Mrs. Lucy Taylor.

Mr. G. E. Cromer went to Columbia and stood before the board of examiners of opticians and optometrists.

Mrs. S. H. McLean, with her three children, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Huie, in Newberry.—The State.

Mr. Tom Wells of Greenville is visiting relatives in Newberry, his former home. His many friends are always glad to see him.

Miss Annie Bynum of Newberry is expected in the city tomorrow to pay a week-end visit to Mrs. James Austin.—Abbeville Press and Banner, 15th.

Mr. J. A. Minnaugh returned last week from Columbia, after visiting his brother, Mr. J. L. Minnaugh, who has been quite sick but is better.

Mrs. J. P. Shuler of Orangeburg is visiting her sick son-in-law, Mr. Waldo Rikard, who is with his family at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rikard.

Mrs. O. McC. Holmes left on Monday for Fayetteville, N. C., accompanied by her bright little nephew, Oliver Holmes, Jr., who has been staying here during the visit of his parents to New York.

Prof. S. J. Derrick and Dr. George B. Cromer of Newberry and Mr. W. A. Counts of Little Mountain are in Washington attending the convention of the United Lutheran church in America as delegates from the South Carolina synod.

Maj. J. F. J. Caldwell of Newberry is spending a few days in Columbia. Major Caldwell has returned recently from a trip to Virginia where he visited the battle fields upon which he fought with Kershaw's brigade in the Confederate war.—The State, 15th.

Mrs. A. J. Webb has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Clarence Perkins, at Newberry.—Mrs. W. J. Foster and two children, Myrtle and William Foster, are at home from Newberry where they were the guests of Mrs. R. J. Bickley and Mrs. W. J. Foster, Sr.—The State.

Mrs. Z. H. Suber of Whitmire is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. V. Truesdale, who was confined to her bed for several weeks on account of sickness. We are pleased to note that Mrs. Truesdale's condition has very much improved and that she is now able to be up.—Camden Chronicle, 15th.

Friends in Camden of Miss Marie Wendt, formerly of Newberry, will be interested to know of her marriage to Mr. John Sims of Wilmington.

Miss Wendt was at one time connected with the Southern Bell at Camden and had a number of friends in this city.—Camden Chronicle, 15th.

Mr. L. W. Floyd, after a severe spell of illness during the past three weeks, is improving, his many friends will be glad to learn. Whenever "Lou Wash" is a shut in at home it makes a big difference in busy life in the neighborhood of the opera house corner. We hope his slight improvement will soon develop to a greater.

Mr. C. F. Templeton spent the week-end in Anderson with his brother-in-law, Mr. W. J. Sloan, bookkeeper of the Pepsi-Cola Bottling works in that city. Mr. Sloan is seriously ill from the effects of a cat bite on the wrist five weeks ago. Mr. Templeton says it is the worst case of blood poisoning he has ever seen. Mr. Sloan remains in a very serious condition, one leg from the knee down being entirely black.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Leavell remained over from the reunion of Confederate veterans in Houston to visit his brother, Dr. William Hayne Leavell, and children and his niece, Mrs. Mary Brantley Smiley, in that city. They also visited Galveston.

Mr. and Mrs. Leavell are expected home today. They left Houston on Saturday to arrive in New Orleans Sunday for a visit to Mr. Leavell's nephew, Robert Hayne Tarrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Floyd and baby on yesterday moved to the home of Mrs. Floyd's mother, Mrs. W. R. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Hunter are today moving to the house vacated by the Floyds, which Mr. Hunter bought some time ago.

Mr. Thad McCrackin will bring his family back from the country to their own residence which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, the house to be ready for them by the first of January after it has been remodeled.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

Two marriages were performed by Probate Judge Ewart at his office last week, a colored couple on Friday morning and a white couple Saturday morning. The first undergoing the ceremony were Annie Singlet and Eddy Glymph, both of the county. The second were Miss Cora Peterson of Mitchell county, North Carolina, and Mr. G. P. Randall of Vance county, North Carolina, who are in Newberry county, South Carolina.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Cow and calf. John B. Mayes.

Trespass Notice.—All persons are forbidden to trespass upon the lands of the estate of M. Q. Hipp, near Pomaria, in any manner, especially by hunting. Mrs. Emma Hipp. 10-19-20

I wish to thank my many customers for telling their friends about my fine bulbs, which has caused me to have a larger bulb business than I expected, so much so that I have wired three additional orders to the importers for additional bulbs. Hal Kohn.

Buy your bulbs at the Book Store and save money. Mayes Book & Variety Store.

The Wizard, Jr., is the only standard, air cooled automobile built in America at a popular price, $395. Weighs only 800 pounds. Ninety-Six county agencies already appointed. Ten thousand cars under contract. Union county, North Carolina, changed hands in July for $3,000. Secure your county agency now. Wizard Automobile Co., Charlotte, N. C. 10-19-19

For Sale.—Cedar shingles, extra clear grade, $7.75 f. o. b. Jas. E. Sheely, Little Mountain, S. C. 9-17-17

For Rent.—Two horse farm, 2 miles from Newberry. Seven acres good pasture. Apply 1302 Drayton St. 10-19-20

Blankets and comforts at Schumpert-Graham-Suber Co. 10-12-12

SALE OF SCHOOL HOUSE AND LOT.

The undersigned trustees of the school district No. 10, Midway, made up of the old school districts of Swilston or Slighs and Excelsior, will offer for sale to the highest bidder therefor for cash, on Saturday, October 30, 1920, the lot and house thereon formerly used for the Swilston school, situated near Slighs. The lot contains one acre of land, more or less. The sale will take place at the former school at 11 a. m.

T. S. Cook,
F. T. Mayer,
G. A. Counts,
J. S. Watts,
J. L. Bowers,
Trustees Midway School District No. 10. 10-19-20

NOTICE OF JURY DRAWING

Notice is hereby given that, we, the undersigned Jury Commissioners for Newberry County, South Carolina, will at the court house at 9 o'clock a. m., on November 29th, openly and publicly draw the names of 36 men to serve as petit jurors at the Common Pleas court which is to convene November 15th, 1920.

C. C. Schumpert,
J. B. Halfacre,
John C. Goggans,
Jury Commissioners for Newberry County. 10-18-20

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF MANAGERS OF FEDERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 2, 1920.

Chappells, S. C.—Mrs. Kate Holloway Coleman, J. J. Boazman, W. B. Allen, managers.

Lambert W. Jones,
J. B. T. Sene,
B. H. Herron,
Commissioners.

Halloween Paper. Mayes Book & Variety Store.

John Fox, Jr., wrote "Erskine Dale, Pioneer," shortly before he died. This book has been a fine seller with me. Perhaps you would like it. All the new books just as they are published. Hal Kohn.

Typewriter Ribbons and carbon paper guaranteed. Mayes Book & Variety Store.

Wedding guest books, wedding logs, bride's diaries and other books for the wedding and the bride, also place and tally cards for the parties to the bride. Hal Kohn.

No trespassing of stock on my lands worked by Henry Wilson, Jacob Sanders and William G. Gillingham. Penalty of law will be strictly enforced. M. M. Buford. 10-19-20

Engraved visiting cards. Neat and inexpensive. Would be glad to show you samples. Hal Kohn.

For Sale.—One good milk cow, kind and gentle and halter broke. J. O. Counts, Peak, S. C., Route 1. 10-19-19

Magazine readers you are going to renew your subscriptions to the magazines which you like and you will probably add a few new ones. Let me handle your magazine orders at publishers cost. I represent all publications and will appreciate any printed offer made by any publication. Hal Kohn.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

I will make a final settlement of the estates of J. C. and Queenie Tucker in the Probate Court for Newberry County, S. C., on Saturday, the 20th day of November, 1920, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and will immediately thereafter ask for my discharge as Administrator of said estates.

W. F. Ezell,
Administrator.
Newberry, S. C., Oct. 16, 1920.

Have us sell your land at auction. Atlantic Coast Realty company, Petersburg, Va., and Greenville, N. C. Write, wire